

The Providores and Tapa Room

We are proud to offer the largest selection of premium New Zealand wines at any restaurant in Europe. We hope you find our list informative and concise - and that you are able to make an informed selection from it. We are constantly evolving our choice of wines, keenly aware of supporting the many vineyards throughout New Zealand with whom we have built strong relationships over the years.

New Zealand's Wine Regions

There are 10 major wine regions in New Zealand. Each boasts an enormous diversity in climate, terrain and therefore, style of wine.

(see page 2 for regional descriptions)

As a tribute to each of these regions The Providores will be profiling one wine each month in our 'by the glass' programme, allowing you the opportunity to try some of our favourite wines.

2017 Vidal, Riesling, Awatere Valley, Marlborough

Elegant and dry styled Riesling that captures freshness and delicacy with citrus and floral notes

29.00 bottle / £18.60 carafe / 6.30 glass

Anthony Joseph Vidal, a young immigrant from Spain, was one of the first winemakers to appreciate the natural potential of the Hawke's Bay area. He established Vidal Estate in 1905 and his spirit of adventure coupled with a lifelong commitment to crafting classic, elegant wines remains an inspiration to this day. He was 22 years old when he arrived in

New Zealand from Spain in 1888. His first eleven years were spent in Wanganui, working for his uncle, pioneer winemaker Joseph Soler. He then moved to Hawke's Bay in 1905 where he purchased a small property in Hastings. Once the stables occupying the site were converted into a cellar, Anthony set about planting his grapevines. It was here that he became one of New Zealand's early wine innovators. Today, winemaker Hugh Crichton continues to follow Vidal's winemaking traditions, creating trophy winning wines.
